

Wayne Barbour

November 25, 1960 - March 22, 2021

Wayne Barbour was born November 25, 1960 in Wilmington, Delaware to Wayne O. Barbour and Patricia Barbour. He transitioned to his heavenly home on March 22, 2021.

Wayne received his early education in Wilmington, Delaware school system and graduated from Newark High School in 1979. He enlisted in the Army and Airforce and received an Honorable Discharge.

Wayne was employed with the University of Delaware as a Groundskeeper for several years.

Wayne enjoyed singing, dancing and spending time with his family especially his nieces and nephews. He loved his granny Jency Pannell. She remembers that he used to come to her house when he was little and pick all the walnuts and eat as many as he could. When he was older he would do her landscaping.

He will be sorely missed but never forgotten.

Wayne was preceded in death by his father Wayne O. Barbour.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories his mother Patricia A. Barbour, sisters: Denita, Tonya, Colette and Terasa Michelle, brother Corey; grandmother Jency, special friends Ernie Hunter and Dennis Black along with a host of nieces, nephews cousins and friends

“ My condolences to the family. Wayne was a part of my life in high school. I have always carried those memories with me. I asked another classmate about him on my last visit to Delaware a few months ago but was unsure where he was. It would have been great to have seen him after all these years. I pray that the family receive the peace that passes all understanding as you grieve and embark on the journey to let your love one transition to a better life!
