Our Beloved Father Arnold Hammond was born on December 6th, 1932 in Wilmington, DE and unexpectedly passed away on November 26, 2022 at Regal Heights nursing home at the age of 89 (a week and a half short of his 90th birthday). He was the son of Teresa Thomas and Thomas Hammond. Arnold was the third youngest of eleven children born and raised in Southbridge.

Arnold received his early childhood education in the Wilmington Public Schools and later worked for many years for the City of Wilmington as a Sanitation worker. He also had little odd jobs here and there. Upon retirement he enjoyed traveling, fishing, beaches and lots of family time.

He later married Mary Little and enjoyed his retirement traveling and fishing.

Arnold was preceded in death by his son Mardis Hammond.

Left to cherish his memory are his daughters: Lois Paynter (Mansoor), Joanne Chapman (James), Toni Hammond, Tracey Hammond; son Paul Neason of Detroit Michigan along with a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends.
