

Brian Baynard

May 28, 1963 - February 11, 2024

In his sixty years Brian Baynard was a son, brother, nephew, cousin, father, grandfather, friend and dependable co-worker.

Brian was an avid sports fan with a focus on the Washington Commanders football team who wore jerseys of his favorite players on games days. Ocean City, MD and the beach were his happy place and he enjoyed any travel.

In recent years he connected with extended Person cousins at several family reunions. He is survived by his mother Brenda Jean Baynard, sister Tracy Marie Baynard and his three daughters Bethany Brown, Keishana Baynard and Samara Baynard and granddaughter Delilah Clarke. Close family who will miss him terribly include his Aunt Leona Hayward, Uncle Earl ( Bobby) Person, cousins Phillip Hayward (Teresa Hayward) and Von Hayward (Kendall Hayward) and Heart Uncle Robert Eubanks.

Brian has many friends including The Belvedere Boys – now Belvedere Men -- who continue to be as close as they were as kids. They came together through their love of anything with wheels bonding over bicycles, dirt bikes, cars and motorcycles - anything that goes fast. As adults they may not have seen each other frequently but anytime they got together it was as if no time had passed at all.

All who knew him will miss his smile.
