

Carlton L Armstead

July 7, 1952 - July 22, 2023

Carlton Lewis Armstead entered into eternal life on Saturday, July 22, 2023. A native of Wilmington, Delaware, Carlton was born to Florine and Howard Stafford on July 7, 1952. Carlton received his early education in Wilmington Public Schools. Carlton held various jobs, but later was employed with the Star Building as a supervisor for 20 years, until his retirement.

As a young adult he enjoyed going fishing with his buddy Chuckie Brown and spending time with his dog Shay. Carlton also enjoyed watching his favorite sports team the Philadelphia Eagles, cleaning, and spending time with his family and friends. He really loved eating as well; his favorite was steak, roast beef, and ziti made by his son Deveron, so much so, that it was always his requested meal.

Carlton was preceded in death by his loving mother Florine Stafford, his loving daughter Carltilia Baker, his brothers, Michael Armstead and David Moore, his lifelong companion Almethier Baker, and his bonus son Johnnie Baker.

Carlton leaves to celebrate his legacy, his father Howard Stafford; two sisters, Lois Moore and Pamela Ford, three daughters Cheryl Murray; Delaina Moore-Hughes; and Monique Pruden; two sons Carlton Kale and Deveron Baker; three bonus daughters, Cynthia, and Kimyatta Baker, and Sylvia Butler; three bonus sons, Greg, Terrell, and Tyrone Baker; three special bonus grandchildren, Ronnika Baker; Latisha Tolbert; and Shawn Mitchell, his devoted fur nephew Milo Moore, a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other family and friends.
