

Catherine Williams

December 3, 1930 - July 4, 2024

Catherine "Cat" (Pulliam) Williams

Catherine "Cat" Williams (Pulliam), aged 93, of Wilmington, Delaware, passed away peacefully on July 4, 2024. Born on December 3, 1930 in Saxe, Virginia, Catherine was a beacon of harmony, always urging family members to reconcile and cherish one another. Her potato salad was legendary, and her constant smile and amiable nature will be dearly missed.

Catherine attended Howard High School and later dedicated many years of service to the Stonegate Retirement Community in Greenville, Delaware, where she retired. She was a member of the New Mt Olive Church. Unfortunately she was no longer in attendance. However, this had no effect on her commitment to her faith.

Her personal interests included playing Bingo and hosting Christmas dinners, events that brought joy and laughter to many. Catherine was the family peace maker, often telling her daughter Cathy to "leave her alone" in jest, showcasing her gentle humor.

Catherine was preceded in death by her parents, Harry Pulliam and Roxie Anna Ross, Husband Clarence Williams, three sisters, Julia Henderson, Bernice Pulliam, and Nancy Young; and two nephews, Jonathan Henderson and Lanny Pulliam.

She leaves behind her loving daughter, Cathy Williams, along with three nieces, three nephews, 13 great nieces and nephews and 19 great-great nieces and nephews. And friends who were like family.

Her legacy of love, peace, and togetherness will live on through the many lives she touched.
