

Daisy Mae Hannah

January 24, 1944 - November 2, 2021

Daisy Mae Hannah was born January 24, 1944 in Amory, Mississippi to parents Andrew Gray and Clemmie Ruth Whitfield. On November 2, 2021 she passed away peacefully at the age of 77 surrounded by her family.

Daisy was a member of Trinity AME church in Waukegan, Illinois. She loved people and was the village mom. She was an active parent in all school activities for her children and stepped in for other parents when needed. In her early years, she loved to cook and was a very good seamstress. Daisy loved to travel, and she loved dancing.

She is the biological mother of three children. However, many people considered Daisy their surrogate mother/aunt.

While Daisy's family grieves her loss, they are choosing to member Daisy in a way that honors her spirit and soul. It would be wrong to say that Daisy lost her battle because she never stopped fighting no matter how sick she was, she was always determined. Through her we know what resilience and perseverance truly look like. The "Little lady" was a fighter. She is now at peace.

Daisy was preceded in death by her parents Andrew Gray and Clemmie Ruth Whitfield.

Daisy is survived by her three children; son Tony Hannah and wife Jackie Hannah, daughter Ann Fegans and husband Thurman Fegans and son Anthony Andrew Hannah. She also leaves behind the father of her children Andrew Hannah, two granddaughters Monique Fegans and Chere' McLaurin two grandsons, Tony, and William Hannah and three great grandchildren. All of whom she loved dearly. Daisy also leaves behind a host of family members and friends from all over the United States to include Mississippi, Illinois, California, Delaware, Wisconsin, Virginia, D.C., Maryland, Texas, Tennessee, Indiana and Ohio.

Aunt Daisy was truly a gift to us all. She had the most exuberant laugh and always had a smile and kind words. We shared the same birthday so that will always be special to me. Rest in Paradise Aunt Daisy.

Mrs Hannah was loving, funny and truly a gift. Me and my husband met her while visiting Ann when they were still living in Illinois. I left a pair of shoes and evidently Ms Hannah liked and could fit the shoes. I hadn't even missed the shoes until months later when Ann told me Ms Hannah said thank you for the shoes, lol. She was truly a jewel and will truly be missed

How do I convey my feelings and emotions? My mother's close friend for decades. A dear mother figure to me and my brothers. My heart breaks for my "other sister and brothers" as I know this path. I love you all with every fiber of my soul. Though I could not be there physically, I am there with you in my prayers and this video service. I love Ms Daisy Hannah so much, words cannot describe. I will continue to hold you all in my prayers.

Thank you Ann for sharing this memorial service site with me! Daisy Mae was my cousin, but like an older sister to me! We always had a great time of laughter and fun whenever we got together. It was as if, time and distance did not exist. Daisy will always be a fun memory for me with lots of love!!!

She did exemplify her name!

“ Ms. Daisy was one of the sweetest ladies I've ever met. She had a heart of gold. She had such a contagious laugh that just automatically made you laugh right along with her. To me, she never met a stranger. We met her while she was visiting Ann and her family in Fort Richardson Alaska over 20 years ago. We became family then! She loved to talk and I loved listening to her talk. One thing I can say is she loved her family and we loved her. Family, we will miss her dearly, but I know she was smiling and laughing when she saw that her mother had come along with Jesus to carry her to her Heavenly home. Oh, what a time a time they are having in heaven, no more pain or suffering and she knows everyone there. Please tell Bobby we love him and miss him. Goodbye for now, but we will definitely see you again.

Gone, but will never be forgotten , sleep on Ms. Daisy! ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ A Cousin Just Like You
We just want to let you know
YOU mean the world to us
Only a heart as dear as yours
Would give themselves so unselfishly

The many things you've done
All the times that you were there
Help us to know deep down inside
How much you really care

Even though we might not say
We appreciate all you do
Richly blessed is how we feel
Having a cousin just like you
