In the Spring of 2012, he was voted Novice of the Year and quickly became the Captain of the Men's Varsity Team in the following fall. For the next four years, he led his team to multitude of victories in all competitions that his team entered. Devante was an artist, loved music and even purchased a bass guitar. He was also an avid skateboarder, collected "dad" hats, and formed a dance group

He was a natural leader, mild mannered and kind. He made friends easily and has several lifelong friends. He was witty and liked to joke around. He loved his family and adored his niece and nephews. He captivated everyone with his infectious smile.

Caring and thoughtful, his family was always on his mind. He always ended every conversation with "I love you."
