“ This is one of the hardest things I had to do. Francis, I just saw you that day. Never once thinking that it would come to this at this time. To the Spencer family, my heart is heavy with this one. Words can not express what I'm feeling. All I know is that we all need to get right, because life is a precious gift giving to us. Let's not take advantage of it. Tamara, Cuz, my heartfelt condolences goes out to you. May God continue to shine his everlasting light, keeping you close during this time of sorrow. Much love to all of you.

On the day of your passing I never in a thousand years though it would be my last seeing you. I will miss your smile and laughter but most of all hearing you call me mom and when you took me to the store if you saw someone you knew you would always say I'm with my mom. I see catch myself looking out of the window for you. I loved Francis as a son.
