

George W Dalie

March 13, 1949 - December 13, 2023

George W. Dalie was born March 13, 1949 in Chester, Pa to Daisy Charity and Billie Dalie. He was educated in the Chester Upland School District.

George married Margaret E. Harding, from that union; they had daughter Carla D. (Dalie) Smith and granddaughter Jasmine D. Sanders also born March 13.

When he joined the workforce, he had a brief stint at Contain Research from 1966 to 1968. George then became a dedicated worker at Scott's; during that time, he also served in the U.S. Army during the mid 1980s. He retired, from what is now known as Kimberly-Clark, in 2006 with 38 years of service.

Let's talk about George:

He always made a fashion statement; no matter the occasion, coordination was necessary from the suits, to the shoes and the hats. Oh, we must remember the jewelry, rings on both hands (all fingers); and of course his stylish watches and shades. He loved listening to music, especially James Brown, and he was a great dancer. His favorite past times were playing pool and working in the yard, which brought him much joy. His love of animals filled his home with fish, birds, turtles, rabbits, cats, and dogs over the years. He leaves behind Midnight, not just a dog, but man's [George's] best friend always by his side.

George is survived by: His children: Carla D. Smith; George B. Dawson; George Mixon; Georgina Dalie; George (aka G) Dalie II; G.W. Dalie; Shy'Neka Turner; and Shy'Anne Turner. His siblings: Betty Williams; Rosemary Dalie (deceased); Ruby Moore; Tyrone Dalie; and Dante Dalie. A host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, will lovingly remember George.

On George's behalf, we would like to express gratitude to his nephew Petie Purnell for all of his love, time, and unwavering support.

“ *What can I say about "G."
George owned a uniquely eclectic mind. I smile when I reminisce about our talks.
George W. Dalie absolutely put the "D" in "Debonair. "
Second to none.
A genuinely beautiful soul.
He is terribly missed.*

“ Mr. George was the coolest. Always dressed clean with a heart of gold. Things are not the same he is definitely missed. Mr. George taught me about plants and playing pool. He definitely loved listening to James Brown and talking care of his pets. Mr. George was very talented especially with pool. He had this game down to the science. Trick shots and all. He would let me think I'm winning and then win the game with a Five rail shot with ease and then add a joke at the end like he didn't mean to make that impossible shot. We had a lot of ideas and plans. He always showed me support by coming out to my Dj events. Mr. George was family. We are definitely going to miss you. Every morning we would joke around when we see each other.. yeah we are definitely going to miss you. Thank you for all the good times, thank you for all the knowledge, thanks for being there Mr. George. Until we meet again. Job well done.. Rest In Paradise.. love you Mr. George! Salute!! 🙏🙏🙏
