

Joyce Gwendolyn Lloyd

August 1, 1939 - October 16, 2021

Joyce Gwendolyn Lloyd, daughter of the late Pauline Daniels and Henry Lloyd was born in Wilmington, Delaware on August 1st, 1939. She transitioned to her heavenly Father, The Lord Jesus Christ, on Saturday October 16th, 2021, surrounded by family and loved ones.

Joyce "Sissy" as she was affectionately known by her family and friends, received her education in the Wilmington, DE. Public School System.

She was employed at Swan Cleaners for several years before working at the Wilmington Medical Center. Prior to the Covid Pandemic, Joyce was employed by the State of Delaware and throughout her 21 years of services she worked as a Foster Grandparent with the YMCA and Eastside Charter School.

She loved the Lord and if you ask her how she was doing, she would reply "Blessed by the Best".

Joyce loved shopping and dancing, but her favorite pastime was visiting the Casinos. You could never keep up with her, so take on your wings and fly away home.

Joyce Lloyd was preceded in death by her beloved husband Harry Black, her parents Pauline and Henry Llyod, five brothers Sylvester Lloyd, Henry Lloyd, Ronald Lloyd, Bernard, and Earl Coston, and one sister, Marie Hickey.

She leaves to cherish her memory four daughters, Edith Riley, Lisa Black (Ronald) Novice Ryle, and Joyce Raison (Darryl). Three sons, Harry Black Jr., Jonathan, and Kevin Black. Seventeen grandchildren, twenty-eight great-grandchildren, and nine great-great grandchildren. Three sisters, Henrietta Church, Victoria Trice and Pamela Lindsey. One brother Tyran Campbell, a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends, and one devoted Sister of God, Louise Hackett.
