

Kalin T Jackson

July 31, 1994 - November 7, 2017

Kalin Thomas Jackson was born on July 31, 1994 in Newark, Delaware to La'Rie and William Jackson. He was later raised and educated in Philadelphia, PA. Kalin's nickname as a child was "Lotta Head" given to him by his late Uncle Buddy.

One of his favorite past times, was target practice, going to the beach, swimming and fishing. He loved children but did not have any of his own. Kalin worked as a carpenter at Spacecon in New Castle, Delaware and also as Domino's in Bear, Delaware. He was loved by everyone he knew, always smiling and always willing to give the shirt off his back to anyone.

Kalin was preceded in death by: three grandparents Julia and Edgar Jackson and Larry Thomas Harrison. Also his two nephews Leroy Collins Jr. and Brandon Jackson.

He departed on November 7, 2017 and survived his parents La'Rie and William Jackson, his siblings: Talia, Julia, Kevin and Bill Jr Jackson. Genoa Corbin, Sheree Carter, Jordan Harrison and a host of other siblings his dad raised as his own. He also leaves behind his only surviving grandparent Donna Buckworth. He will be dearly missed by a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins (including Pall Bearer Stephen Wayne Jackson) and friends.
