“Kiaire was one of my art students in high school. He tried his hardest everyday, was not afraid to try something new, always had a positive attitude, and he had the warmest smile. I truly enjoyed my time with him as my student. My family sends Kiaire’s family and friends our condolences, love and hugs ❤️ He will continue to be missed by many.”

“ I only knew him for but a year and I always tried to share words of encouragement with him. When I would see him, he was always respectful and he listened. We both shared a love of Cadillacs. It saddens me that a young man with such a promising future was taken at such a young age when he had so much life left to live. Rest in Paradise!

“ I’m so sorry for your loss of kiaire Washington. He was such a great soul and he was loved by many people. Its sucks so much that he had to go so soon he was only 20 years old he had such a good life ahead of him. Just know he’s here for you and ur family everyday. His friend Jeff said he loved taking pictures of Lexi with you everyday down at the beach. He would always come over and see my mom, n eat dinner with us. I really am so sorry for everyone’s loss. ❤️🕊️ fly high LLK.
