

Lynell Hammond (Minor)

December 26, 1968 - August 27, 2019

LYNELL HAMMOND (Minor) affectionately known as “Tommie” to family and close friends, was born in Chester, PA. She was the loving daughter of Betty Hammond and the late James Hamm and was born on Thursday, December 26, 1968. Tommie died on Tuesday, August 27, 2019 after an extended illness.

LYNELL HAMMOND: graduated from Chester High School. She pursued her career in Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and upon completion of her CNA education, she was employed at Elwyn Institute and Fairacres Nursing Home. This was a very fitting career for Tommie because she loved people. Tommie also loved animals from the time she was a child. She was very gentle when holding them and more often than not, whatever animal she was holding at that time would have her complete attention.

LYNELL HAMMOND was a strong woman who loved life and fought through much pain; she even endured dialysis because as she stated, when asked if she still wanted it: “Yes. you can't live without it.” Tommie was very independent with a very keen eye for putting together just about anything. She knew how to read and interpret instructions. Tommie loved to shop and often came out of the store with many freebies because she mastered the art of clipping coupons. She also loved to cook and had a natural talent for it.

LYNELL HAMMOND was a force to be reckoned with but would do just about anything for family and friends. She will be greatly missed, and NEVER will she be forgotten, especially by her family.

“ To my beautiful niece, Tommie... I find myself thinking of you almost every single day just as I did when you were here in the physical realm of this world. Every since God took you to your resting place all I have thought about is the good times that we've shared. ;) The good times that we shared makes me smile, laugh and comforts me and keeps me from breaking into a million pieces. You are forever in my heart and my Boo and I am your BooBoo as we often called one another.

May the good Lord embrace your sweet spirit for all the days to come. You are loved and you are missed beyond this day and always.

Love Always,

Aunt Denise

PS By the way you love incredibly beautiful in your picture. My Forever Boo...
