

Othello Tate

January 24, 1941 - January 13, 2020

Othello Tate of the late Thelma Muse and Murphy Tate was born on January 24, 1941, Fredericksburg, VA. Othello departed this life on January 13th, 2020 at Crozer Chester Medical Center, Chester-Upland, PA.

Othello was educated in Colonial Beach, VA. At that time they didn't have school names. He came to Chester, PA to live in 1955, with his mother, and two other siblings. While growing up he loved music, getting dressed up, and listening to artists such as James Brown, and Tina Turner. In his later days he loved to play Solitaire, watch TV, and go to get coffee from WAWA with his brother Button (deceased).

Othello was preceded in death by siblings Edith King, Robert Muse, Theodore Muse (who passed away 8 months ago) and Janice Tate.

Othello Leaves to cherish his memory, one brother, Leslie Tate of Boothwyn, PA; sisters, Marjorie Gillette of Toms River, NJ, Lucinda Annie Stroble (James) of Colonial Beach, VA Karen Tate of Chester, PA, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family.
