

Paula Church

December 19, 1954 - February 23, 2023

Paula Elizabeth Watson was born in Wilmington, Delaware on December 19th, 1954 and transcended peacefully from this life on February 23rd, 2023, at the St. Francis Hospital.

She grew up in Wilmington, where she attended grade schools and Wilmington High School.

After earning certificates in non-traditional work studies from the Goodwill Industries Inc., and Women Power Inc., Paula was employed with various chemical companies, including Ciba Geigy Corporation, as a Chemical Plant operator.

After meeting the love of her life, and making it clear that her love and hand came with a bonus son, Timothy. Paula and Ronald were joined in Holy Matrimony on October 30th, 1987. Through their union two additional children were born. They walked hand in hand, happily together through life, for over 35 years, taking care of each other, every step of the way.

Paula studied the Bible, and enjoyed the warm friendship she found with the Jehovah's Witnesses, which lead to symbolizing her personal faith and dedication to God and being baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Paula loved to shop, dress in the latest fashions, and eat out. One of her favorite hobbies was traveling and cruising the world. However, what she loved the most, was spending time with her husband, children, and grandchildren. She had a gentle spirit, and a smile that could light up any room.

She was preceded in death by her mother; Catherine Normand, father; Micky Watson, grandmother; Pauline Ayers, Grandfather; Walter Ayers Sr., sisters; Phyllis Ali-Taylor, Cheri Muhammad, and brothers; Arnold Tucker, and Leon McKiver.

Paula memory will be cherished forever by her husband; Ronald Church; sons, Timothy (Sherri) Watson, Ronald Watson, daughter; Cheri Watson, Granddaughters; Isis Jackson, Amira Watson, and Alonah Watson, brother; David Watson, Sisters; Robin Horne, Linda Watson, Kathy Watson, Mocey Currie, Mae Glass, Jamie Washington, and Phoylyne Watson, mother in-law; Henrietta Church, friends; Brenda Williams, and Evon Collins, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who loved her dearly.
