She encouraged me to participate with the WMULand thus lead me to serve as President of the Guild. Our inspirational conversations, her genuine guidance and laughter will resonate with me forever. “ Renee was one of a kind woman, that did it with power, dignity and grace. I never heard her say an unkind word and was supportive and encouraging to everyone she met.

She fought the fight, marched when it needed to be done and managed to get herself in all the right places and be heard by those who she needed to execute her visions.

Renee once said, "You may know a lot of people, but I know the right people." That is something that stuck with me and still marinate with me. As I get older, my circle is tighter and she enlightened me on that importance.

I appreciate the blessings and always making me feel welcome and important. Rest in Power.
