

Robert Williams

June 10, 1956 - October 4, 2025

Robert “Heavy” Williams

Forever Heavy — living life his way, every day

Husband, father, and Pop-Pop, received his angel wings on October 4, 2025. He was born on June 10, 1956, to Marion Pearson and James Williams in Camden, New Jersey.

Robert worked for Costco Wholesale for over 25 years before retiring in 2023. An avid blackjack player, he loved visiting casinos, traveling, and finding good places to eat. A diehard Steelers fan, Robert believed it wasn't truly a party unless Frankie Beverly & Maze or Earth, Wind & Fire were playing. And everyone knew — his car of choice was always a BMW.

These things alone may not tell his whole story, but together they capture the full spirit of the man we loved — loyal, funny, stylish, and always ready for a good time.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife, Crystal Williams of Delaware; his children, Andre Williams of New Jersey, Deantre Williams of New York, Shana Gray of Delaware, Bryan Williams of Delaware, and Taurean Williams of New York; his grandchildren, Marcus, Katie, Madison, Lawson,

Miles, Deantre, and Memphis; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
