

Rosebud Nancy Smith

August 2, 1944 - January 9, 2018

Rosebud Nancy Smith was born on August 2, 1944 to Edna Pringle Wilson and William D. Smith in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On Tuesday, January 9, 2017, Rosebud was called home to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was the sister of Priscilla Moore and Delores Smith.

Rosebud received her primary education in the Philadelphia Public School System. She continued her studies at Winfield Academy and became a Cosmetologist. Rosebud's hair salon Quiet Elegance was known in the Germantown area. Transforming lives through haircare was Rosebud's passion and purpose. She was blessed to have committed customers whom she loved like family.

Rosebud had a heart of gold and a passion for children. She served in the Children's Ministry at Christian Stronghold Church. Many of the children in Rosebud's life were considered her God-Children. She had 12 God-Children whom she loved like her own.

Remaining to cherish her life and continue her legacy are: her sister Priscilla Moore; her niece, Debra Parker; her great niece, Nat'e Guyton; her great nephews Chase Guyton and Coi Guyton; her brother-in-law, Michael Moore.

Rosebud leaves behind her beloved children Markita Smith and Marquis

Smith whom she loved with all her heart. She also leaves a host of cousins, lifelong friends, and church family.

A celebration of Rosebud's life will be held Wednesday, January 24th, 2018 at 9 a.m. at Christian Stronghold Church 4701 Lancaster Avenue Philadelphia, PA
