

Salvador Torres-Vasquez

January 30, 1979 - December 1, 2021

Salvador Torrez Vasquez (also known as Sal or junior) was born January 30 , 1979 in Atlantic City to his Mother Elba Vasquez . He was called back home December 1 , 2021.

Salvador attended public schools and he was a home health aid for the agency (Home Helpers). He loved helping and caring for others.

Sal was such a WONDERFUL person and his heart was full of gold. There was hardly anyone who wasn't touched by his giving heart. He loved his family and friends and often bragged about his mother, children, grandsons and siblings.

Later on in life Sal moved to Wilmington Delaware and during his journey he met a few new people as well as rekindled with his main family.. Anyone that knew Sal knew he meant no harm, he just loved extremely hard and wanted to see everyone around him, happy, growing and accomplishing something in life. He was a very uplifting person, he was very funny! Always making jokes, his personality spoke for itself.

Salvador was proceeded in death by his brother Miguel Vasquez (Felip).

His memories will be forever cherished by his mother Elba Vasquez;

daughters Danashia Harding and Tanashia Harding; son Salvador Jr; grandsons Kaison Harding and Knowledge Harding; sister Jackie Velez; niece Jasmine Velez; nephews Devin Velez and Jahiem Velez and best friend Kevin
