“ My condolences to Brenda and the Williams family especially Shawanna's children. Shawanna absolutely lit up the room. Even though she is no longer here on earth, she is always and will always be in our hearts. We do not have control over many things in life and death but we do have control over the meaning we give it. There is no right way to grieve; there is only your way to grieve and that is different for everyone especially if they have not experience what you are experiencing. Never compare your grief. Just walk your path. May I ask God to give you all the strength you ae in need of at this difficult time.
