Theotis Elijah Joe Sr born February 2, 1955 in Winnfield, Louisiana. He was the son of Paul Joe and Bessie Lee Malory

Theotis E. Joe Sr. Was an amazing man. His rough childhood groomed him to be the great man he became. As one of eight children he was raised in Winnfield, Louisiana until the age of 17.

After he graduated high school he moved to Houston, Texas where he hustled hard to make a living for himself. He met his ex wife Debra A. Raymond and they had their first child Theotis E. Joe Jr. in 1975. In 1981 they had their second child Monica M. Joe Robinson. Fast forward to 1989 in Delaware, Theotis Joe Sr. and his Second Wife Debra Mills Joe had his third and last child Elliott C. Hall.

Theotis E. Joe Sr. was a great father, grandfather, brother, leader, friend to many, and well respected. He showed love to everyone. He would help anyone, anywhere, anytime they needed a hand. He was always there for his children and never abandoned his responsibilities as a man. He worked hard and played even harder. He was a teacher, a hustler, a master craftsman, a connoisseur of music and he loved fishing. He kept a sharp knife and his attitude was mean when need be. Most of all he had a large heart of gold and smile brighter than a supernova.

Theotis E. Joe Sr. died peacefully in his company truck on August 8th 2023 while on his lunch break at work. His sudden departure was a devastating blow nation wide, but his legacy continues and the love he shared touched the hearts of many.
