

William Butch Turner

July 5, 1957 - May 5, 2026

William “Butch” Turner, 68, of Wilmington, Delaware, passed away on May 5, 2026. He resided at The Heart Program at Marilyn House in Bear Delaware. He was born on July 5, 1957, in Wilmington, Delaware, to the late Jerry Bullock and survived by Shirley Charles.

Affectionately known as “Butchie” by his loving family, William spent his life in Wilmington, where he attended local schools and worked various jobs in construction. He was known for his strong work ethic and dedication to providing for his family. Loved the Dallas Cowboys and taking rides and going to the park. And attended activities @Messiah Angels. 9

William was a loving father and son who cherished time with those closest to him. His warmth, presence, and care for his family will be deeply missed.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Melivina Turner, his brother Allen Turner, his Grandmother, Ella Mae Coursey, and his stepfather, George Charles.

William leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Shirley Charles, his children, Marvell Watts, (Damitia), and his beloved grandchildren, Kareem, Markeya, Marvell Jr., Don-juane, Amya, Dha-Feir, Dha'Mhani, and Majur Watts, his brother, Daniel Seeney, his sisters Shirley Turner, Theola Saunders, (Wayne), Terri Mitchell, (Ronny) many other nieces, nephews, and friends.

William's life and legacy will live on through the many lives he touched. He will be remembered with love and held close in the hearts of his family forever.

You're gone but not forgotten we'll never be apart. Your memory is a treasure
We keep within our hearts.

Love always the family.